This workshop expands the knowledge of play therapists for how to navigate, respond to and head off sticky legal requests. The presenter will use her experience and training in forensic work and share case scenarios throughout the training.

Learning Objectives:

- Analyze the role, the risks, and common requests of a play therapist in legal matters.
- Discuss ethics codes for AMHCA, AAMFT and NASW and Association for Play Therapy Best Practices that guide decision making when responding to court requests.
- Review and compare how laws for confidentiality may conflict with ethical guidelines and APT best practices in play therapy cases.
- Identify common legal terms.
- Discuss the purpose of record-keeping, progress notes, and what should be in the play therapy record.
